6th September 2019

Dear Parents/Carers,

It gives me great pleasure to write to you as the new Headteacher of Gayton Primary School. I am absolutely delighted to have started in post and consider it a privilege to have been appointed. It has been a very exciting week getting to know the staff, children and all the school routines. I have to say that I am incredibly impressed with the children and how courteous and respectful they are. It has been a pleasure to spend time with them during lessons and in less structured times at break times and lunchtimes.

Over the next few days and weeks, I am very much looking forward to getting to know all the children and parents so please do come and introduce yourself and I will try and learn names as quickly as I can!

I will be sending out our first school newsletter next week with dates for your diary and information about aspects of school life.

I look forward to working in partnership with you. Have a lovely weekend.

Kind regards

Mrs McAleny
Headteacher
